PRESS RELEASE

Peninsula Bank Business Funding closes a $4.0 million Working Capital Facility for Network FOB, Inc.

Palo Alto, CA – March 1, 2011 – Peninsula Bank Business Funding (“PBBF”), a division of The Private Bank of the Peninsula, successfully funded a new line of credit with Network FOB, which intends to use the new credit facility, up to $4,000,000, for working capital purposes.

“I am pleased that we were able to put this facility in place for Network FOB,” said Mike Hansen, Executive Vice President of PBBF. “They are a leader in their market and I look forward to being a part of their long-term success.”

“Adding Network FOB as a client is another significant step as we continue to expand the work we are doing in corporate finance,” stated Mark D. Mordell, Chairman of the Board of The Private Bank of the Peninsula.

Headquartered in Naples, Florida with operations offices in Eagan, Minnesota, Network FOB provides comprehensive business-to-business shipping through its agents located throughout the continental United States, Canada and Mexico. Network, founded in 1971, is equipped to support all facets of the shipping process for their clients, inclusive of system and processes, accounting, claims processing, insurance, marketing and training. With almost 150 industry veterans on staff and state-of-the art technology, Network FOB is a true-leader in the transportation industry. (Visit www.networkfob.com)

“PBBF understood what we are trying to build here and structured a facility that will truly help us expand our business,” said Tim Taylor, President of Network FOB.
